ANA Coin Press – "The Myth of the Continental Dollar: Part One"

(Originally published in The Numismatist, January 2018)

As you read this, hundreds of brand-new, 1776-dated "Continental Currency" coins are for sale at dozens of historic sites across the United States. Accepted as the top numismatic relics of the American Revolution, originals are among the most beloved coins, and replicas have been popular souvenirs for ages. Their devices and mottoes, the brainchildren of Benjamin Franklin, are perfect, enduring symbols of the era, making these pieces as intoxicating and seductive as a siren's song.
