The American Silver Eagle

By: Adhitri Sethuraghavan

The American Silver Eagle is a silver bullion coin made in the United States of America. It was first released on November 24, 1986. The coin has one dollar face value and is guaranteed to be composed of 99.9% pure silver one troy ounce. There are proof and uncirculated versions of these coins available to collectors.

These coins in their bullion, uncirculated version were first minted in 1986. They were minted from 1986 to 2008, 2010 to present-day for the proof version and 2006 to 2008, 2011 to present-day for the uncirculated coin. The first American Silver Eagle coin was minted in San Francisco. The coin is now being produced at the Philadelphia mint, San Francisco mint and the West Point mint.

Own a Piece of History from the Money Museum

Join the monthly ANA Money Museum Auction on eBay, Nov. 18-25.

Collectors will have a week to review the items – all of which are duplicate, mostly low-value specimens already represented in the Money Museum collection. (No permanent items from the collection are being sold.) ANA members receive a 20% discount on their winning bids! All proceeds will be used to support the Museum's educational mission.

Money Museum auctions take place every third Thursday of the month. YN Dollars are NOT allowed to be used to purchase these deaccessioned items – YN Dollars can only be used to "purchase" items in the official ANA YN Auctions held each month.
