ANA Coin Press – "The Most Compelling Collectible"

Coins exist from ancient empires and every corner of the modern world, from shipwrecks to underground treasures, and there are coins that portray virtually every element of human endeavor with countless images of history, nature and culture. But if you want just one single item to convey the essence of numismatics, the most compelling numismatic collectible is the 1943 steel cent.

Buying and Selling Online

The Internet has changed the way collections are made

The YN Perspective from the February 2023 Numismatist by Kenny Sammut

Adding to a collection has never been easier. In the past, visiting coin shows (where many notable dealers can be found in one place) and local shops were the primary ways to acquire new pieces. Before the advent of the Internet, mail-order catalogs were another key source for building numismatic collections. Prominent dealers such as B. Max Mehl and Otto Oddehon advertise their inventory in these catalogs, which had no photos and only brief descriptions of the coins' appearances.

In 1995 the launch of eBay united the world marketplace and opened the floodgates for positive, global numismatic interaction. I have always purchased coins on eBay, but for the past five years, I have also been on the other side of the "Buy It Now" (BIN) button.

Earn a College Scholarship for Numismatic Involvement

Applications for the Gerome Walton Memorial College Scholarships, provided by the ANA, are being accepted through March 13. The scholarship fund provides a graduating high school senior, who is also a member of the ANA, with $1,000 to use at the university, community college or trade school in the U.S. of the student's choice.

This scholarship can be used for tuition, books or supplies directly related to class requirements. Up to two scholarships may be awarded annually. Students with a full class schedule, who maintain a B average throughout their higher education, can receive the $1,000 scholarship up to four years.

Applications must be postmarked by March 13, 2023. Completed applications should be sent to:

Own a Piece of History from the Money Museum

Join the monthly ANA Money Museum Auction on eBay, February 16-23.

Collectors will have a week to review the items – all of which are duplicate, mostly low-value specimens already represented in the Money Museum collection. (No permanent items from the collection are being sold.)

ANA members receive a 20% discount on their winning bids! All proceeds will be used to support the Museum's educational mission.

Money Museum auctions take place every third Thursday of the month. YN Dollars are NOT allowed to be used to purchase these deaccessioned items – YN Dollars can only be used to "purchase" items in the official ANA YN Auctions held each month.
